

I. Combine the following groups of sentences into one sentence

1. The students read constantly
They read books about Ahmad life.
2. The students take examinations.
The take them quite regularly.
3. Otters eat hungrily.
They eat sea urchins and a balone.
4. She studies English.
She studies several hours a day.
She studies hard.
5. She will study plant life.
She will study next semester.
6. Citra studies English.
She studies every night.
7. He flies a plane.
He flies for pleasure.
He flies for business.

II. Write sentences with the pattern Noun + Verb + Noun using the sentence element given.

1. Exports/Canada/wheat
2. English/teaches/Mr. Endang
3. Does/he/well/his work
4. The house/entered/the guests/on time
5. The vase/my baby brother/broke
6. Snow-capped mountains/the passengers/in the distance/saw
7. Put/the secretary/on the desk/the letter.
8. Against slavery/whittier/many poems/wrote
9. In this region/sell/the farmers/corn and wheat
10. Produces/oranges/Florida